

Jamie M. Blucher Joins Winderweedle, Haines, Ward & Woodman, P.A.

ORLANDO, FL -- Winderweedle, Haines, Ward & Woodman, P.A. recently announced that attorney Jamie M. Blucher has joined the firm practicing in general commercial litigation in the areas of business debt collection, commercial foreclosures and workouts, construction contract and defect disputes, and general breach of contract actions. She also practices in bankruptcy, with a focus on representing creditors and trustees in bankruptcy cases, adversary proceedings and appeals.

Blucher, the valedictorian of her Barry University School of Law class, is an active member of the Central Florida Bankruptcy Law Association, the Orange County Bar Association (OCBA), and the Legal Aid Society, where she currently serves on the Board of Trustees. In 2013, Blucher was awarded the Pro Bono Award of Excellence by the OCBA's Young Lawyers Section and in 2014 she was awarded a New Lawyer Award of Excellence by the Legal Aid Society of the OCBA. During her career, she has logged hundreds of pro bono hours representing abused and neglected children.

Established in Central Florida in 1931, the roots of Winderweedle, Haines, Ward & Woodman, P.A. are grounded in a sustaining reputation of dedicated legal service to individuals and businesses critical to the area's growth and its quality of life. WHWW is a full-service law firm providing legal representation in business law, litigation and appeals, bankruptcy, banking, insurance law, estates and trusts, government, property rights, and real estate, as well as other areas. Winderweedle, Haines, Ward and Woodman also represent national, regional and local clients including financial institutions, corporations, private foundations, and individuals.

###

Debby Sweeney
Sweeney & Bartlett Marketing Partners, Inc.
321/438-9596
www.sweeneybartlett.com

SWEENEY&BARTLETT
marketing partners, inc.